* CALL TO WORSHIP

One: God does not crush our suffering.

All: He enters it. Jesus loves us.

One: God does not erase our pain.

All: He feels it. Jesus loves us.

One: God does not ignore our quarantine.

All: He comes to us! Jesus loves us!

**Please stand if you are able to do so.*

* HYMN

Jesus Loves Me

Jesus loves me! This I know, for the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to him belong;
they are weak, but he is strong.

Refrain:

Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so.

Jesus loves me! This I know,
as he loved so long ago,
Taking children on his knee, saying, "Let them come to me." [Refrain]

Jesus loves me! Still today, walking with me on my way, Wanting as a friend to give light and love to all who live. [Refrain]

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God,
We are climbing the walls.
Forgive our impatience
With loved ones in close quarters,
With friends we have not heard from,
with our own injuries.

Forgive our faithlessness
When we look for An easier gospel,
A lighter cross,
A less demanding savior.

Bring us back to life,
For your name's sake.
We know you can do it.
You've done it before.
Give us new life, now!
Amen.

MOMENT OF SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

THE BIBLICAL WORD FOR THIS DAY

Cindy Zinn Ball

John 11:1-44 translation by David Bentley Hart

Now there was a man who was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, from the village of Mary and her sister Martha. It was the Mary who had anointed the Lord with unguent, and had wiped off his feet with her hair, whose brother was ill. So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, look: He whom you cherish is ill." And on hearing this Jesus said, "This illness is not unto death, but rather is for the glory of God, so that the Son might be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and also her sister and Lazarus. Even so, having heard that he was ill he then stayed on in the place where he was for two days; After this he then says to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again ... Lazarus has died, And for your sakes I rejoice that I was not there, so that you may have faith; but let us go to him ... Martha, hearing that Jesus is coming, met him; but Mary sat in the house. So Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, had you been here, my brother would not have died. Even now I know that whatever things you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha says to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever has faith in me, even if he should die, shall live, And whoever lives and has faith in me most certainly does not die, throughout the age; do you have faith in this?" She says to him, "I have had faith that you are the Anointed, the Son of God who is coming into the cosmos..." Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and saw him, fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, had you been here my brother would not have died." Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping he groaned in his spirit and yielded himself to his turmoil, And said, “Where have you laid him?” They say to him, “Lord come and see.” Jesus wept.

So the Judeans said, “See how he cherished him.” But some of them said, “Is not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, able to bring it about that this man also might not die?” So Jesus, again groaning within himself, comes to the tomb; and it was a cavern, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus says, “Take away the stone.” Martha says to him, “Lord, by now it gives off a bad odor; for this is the fourth day.” Jesus says to her, “Have I not told you that if you have faith you will see God’s glory? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, “I give you thanks that you have heard me; And I knew that you always hear me; but I have spoken on account of the crowd standing all around, so that they might have faith that you have sent me.” And saying these things he cried out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!”

The one who had died came forth, feet and hands bound with strips of linen and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus says to them, “Unbind him and let him go.”

*A STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church, to celebrate God’s presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

(adapted from the United Church of Canada)

Excerpt from The Raising of Lazarus by Franz Wright

He called them “my friends.” The Logos, God’s creating word, — the same voice that said
Let there be light.

Yet

when he opened his eyes, he found himself standing apart.

Even the two slowly backing away, as though from concern for their good name.

Then he began to hear voices;

whispering

quite distinctly,

or thinking:

Lord,

if you had been here

our friend might not have died.

(At that, he slowly reached out as though to touch a face, and soundlessly started to cry.)

From About Lazarus by Deborah Boe

When Lazarus rises out of his bedsheets

he always acts

like he wakes in a strange house, make us say our names over and over until all meaning is wrung from them, and then stares uncomprehendingly at his cereal in its white dish. It is as if this house we live in holds many other houses, visible only to him.

From The Raising of Lazarus by Franz Wright

pale as though bled, stooping at the entrance and squinting at the light, picking at his face, loose strips of rotting shroud.
All that he could think of
was a dark place to lie down, and hide that wasted body.
And tears rolled up his cheek
and back into his eyes, and then his eyes began rolling back into his head

From The Mercy of Lazarus by Stephen Dobyns

It must have been a dispirited awakening - Expecting everything settled, the long night
Without interruption suddenly interrupted,

Like a four a.m. alarm bell but worse, the rock Rolled back, to be called forth, told to pick up the yoke, to pay your bills, get the roof fixed,
Become a bit of proof in the Lord's affidavit.

Just when you thought your history complete,
Your problems solved - bad wages, long hours.
Now the crowd pushes forward, demanding
To hear your cries of thanks.

WOMEN'S BOOK GROUP

Please join us for the second meeting of a women's book group, during which we will discuss the second chapter of the book Inspired, by Rachel Held Evans. All are welcome - even if you missed the first meeting or haven't read the chapter. Email Corie Gallemore for more information: corie.gallemore@gmail.com.

OPPORTUNITIES

Most of these opportunities are currently suspended due to our stay-at-home, and some of them are happening virtually.

We look forward to the time when we can enjoy them all in person again.

ALTAR FLOWER SIGN-UP – Providing flowers for the altar is a great way to celebrate a birthday, anniversary or honor someone special in your life. You can sign up by emailing Claire Higgins to check open Sundays in 2020, chiggins@spucc.org.

COLLEEN HENRY WRITING CENTER – Tutors Needed

Tutors volunteer two hours once a week, Monday through Thursday. Training and mentoring are available. For more information or to volunteer, contact Linda Patton, lpatton21@yahoo.com.

CONNECTORS reach out providing networking and support for members and friends of St. Pauls. Membership is open to all who have the time and the inclination to help. Contact Marcia Volk at marcia@volkonline.com.

CONSIDER THE LILIES – Deliver our Sunday altar flowers to members and friends who need to know St. Pauls is thinking of them. If you would like to be part of this initiative, please contact Maureen Grunst at mvgrunst@gmail.com.

FAITH IN ACTION – Some people call it showing up for a protest. Others call it public witness for the values inherent in our faith. Most of us appreciate being able to do both with like-minded congregational members. We are continually building a Faith-in-Action list of people who wish to receive notice of such protests and gatherings – frequently on short notice due to swift governmental action. Please join this email list by contacting Claire Higgins at chiggins@spucc.org.

FAITH AND PUBLIC ISSUES – Help us connect our faith to critical public issues. Do you wish you knew more from a faith perspective about current issues that are important to our public life? Racism, climate change, immigration, to name a few. FPI programs provide opportunities to ask questions, help us understand issues in depth, and discuss possible action. The FPI Task Force plans these programs and we could use your ideas. Contact Toby Rogers at toby@rogers-home.com for information about meetings.

FEED THE HUNGRY – Each week, St. Pauls welcomes homeless and hungry people to Sunday dinner in the afternoon as part of the Community Engagement Program (CEP). Teams of 4-6 volunteers prepare and serve dinner. To sign up, contact Jennifer Kew at CEPsupper@gmail.com.

GIFTS, PASSIONS, SKILLS – If you have not already completed our GPS Survey, we still need to hear from you. Please go to forms.gle/jK54YezLs8Ea27uW8 to fill it out. This is an important component of our overall member engagement initiative, as mentioned in the November 10, 2019 congregational meeting. If you prefer to complete a paper document, they are available on the front counter of the office next to the labeled return box. Thank you in advance for your participation.

LINCOLN PARK COMMUNITY SERVICES HAS EXPANDED! – This St. Pauls founded organization serves homeless individuals for breakfast and dinner at two locations: 1521 N. Sedgwick and 600 W. Fullerton. Serving meals at two facilities means that LPCS is looking for new individuals and groups to volunteer to provide food. It's a great way to gather your friends, family, or colleagues together for an engaging and rewarding opportunity. For more information on how to get involved, email Abby at volunteer@lpcschicago.org, or call 773-549-6111 ext. 208.

LITTLE LIGHTS is a St. Pauls early childhood program with classes for 2, 3, and 4-year olds. We are now accepting applications for 2020. Check out www.littlelightslp.org. Email Little Lights Director Erin Fitzgerald at littlelights@spucc.org.

ABOUT ST. PAULS

Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open to and Affirming of" LGBTQ women and men.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 176 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
