One: We sing from a signal outside ourselves. It promises a joyous end.

One: Speech from our past paradise,

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jeff Carlson

Gracious God, we have heard the good news:
How on the third day, Christ rose again.
We still look for the living among the dead.
You rolled away the stone from the tomb.
We still look for the living among the dead.
You sent messengers to proclaim the gospel.
We still look for the living among the dead.
You have done wonderful things!
We still look for the living among the dead.
Forgive us Lord. Teach us to believe the good news:
Christ is alive; Jesus is risen from the dead. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS Sweet Hour of Prayer

SCRIPTURE

Gaby Godinez

Genesis 27:6–29 and 41

Rebekah said to Jacob her son, "Look, I have heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying, 'Bring me some game and make me a dish that I may eat, and I shall bless you in the Lord's presence before I die.' So now, my son, listen to my voice, to what I command you. Go, pray, to the flock and fetch me from there two choice kids that I may make them into a dish for your father of the kind he loves. And you shall bring it to your father and he shall eat, so that he may bless you before he dies." And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth-skinned man. What if my father feels me and I seem a cheat to him and bring on myself a curse and not a blessing?" And his mother said, "Upon me your curse, my son. Just listen to my voice and go, fetch them for me." And he went and fetched and brought to his mother, and his mother made a dish of the kind his father loved. And Rebekah took the garments of Esau her elder son, the finery that was with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son, and the skins of the kids she put on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. And she placed the dish, and the bread she had made, in the hand of Jacob her son. And he came to his father and said, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?" And Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you have spoken to me. Rise, pray, sit up, and eat of my game so that you may solemnly bless me." As Isaac said to Jacob, "Come close, pray, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are my son Esau or not." And Jacob came close to Isaac his father and he felt him and he said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob and the hands are Esau's hands." But he did not recognize him. And Isaac his father said to him, "Come close, pray and kiss me, my son." And he came close and kissed him, and he smelled his garments and he blessed him and he said, "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of the field that the Lord has blessed.

May God grant you
From the dew of the heavens and the fat of the earth,
An abundance of grain and drink.
May people serve you, and nations now before you.
Be overlord to your brothers,
May your mother's sons bow before you.
Those who curse you be cursed,
And those who bless you, blessed."

And Esau seethed with resentment against Jacob over the blessing his father had blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, "The time for mourning my father's death is close. After that, I will kill Jacob my brother."

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

NOV 15 - BECOMING AN ANTI-RACIST - 5:30-6:30 p.m., Church Parking Lot
Open to children grades 1st-6th. Do you want your children to develop an understanding of racism and work to uproot racism and inequality in our society and in ourselves? Every other Sunday, we will look to see more clearly its painful consequences, and start to learn tools for how we can work to oppose racism and help build a just and equitable church and society. Led by Pastor Sarah and 3Children's Program Coordinator Karaçan Sayrun-Thomas. All children must wear masks. Register here: <https://forms.gle/Szdpzi95mWsQ4a4U9>.

NOV 18 - WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY: Stories of Women in the Gospel of John - 12 p.m., Zoom

Pastor Jeff is holding a Bible Study on Wednesdays at noon on Zoom. From now until Advent, we will be looking at stories from the Gospel of John that feature women as characters. You can participate online, or call in from your phone. Email Jeff with questions or to get the meeting invitation and instructions, jcarlson@spucc.org.

NOV 18 - CARING FOR THE PLANET:2020 - 6-7 p.m., Zoom

Each Sunday, we affirm that God calls us to "care for creation." We took a look at the climate change data as related to our proclamation in a 2018 Lenten Series. This November, we're updating that data for 2020. This Zoom series is led by Joe Womack, MBA, JD, and a trained leader of the Climate Reality Project, with Pastor Jeff offering theological reflections.

Nov. 18: The good news of what is being done world-wide to address the climate change crisis, and what we can do to help.

RSVP for the Zoom link to Jeff at jcarlson@spucc.org.

NOV 21 - YOUNG ADULTS GROUP FRIENDSGIVING - 6-9 p.m., Zoom

We will be getting together virtually for an evening of chatting, games, eating, and dancing, if you so choose. This event is usually in person at the church, so we have planned to include both small and large group time over Zoom to facilitate better conversations and connection. Please email Julia at juliaqmercer@gmail.com with any questions, or if you need the Zoom link.

NOV 24 - WOMEN'S BOOK GROUP - 7:30 p.m., Zoom

DEC 3 - ST. PAULS SOCIAL VIRTUAL WINE TASTING - 7-8:30 p.m., Zoom
Join St. Pauls Social and Dan Berghoff, a certified sommelier and winemaker, as we hone our tasting skills and expand our appreciation for wine, all while having a good time! Pick up your “mystery” wines from church on December 2 from 5-6 p.m. A voluntary donation to the church of $15 is suggested. RSVP no later than November 30 to: Jeff Carlson at jcarlson@spucc.org.

OPPORTUNITIES

COFFEE HOUR - Coffee hour is right after Sunday Worship, and now on Zoom – see the note after the Postlude for details. Join one of our pastors and other members and friends for this weekly hour of fellowship!

CONNECTORS reach out providing networking and support for members and friends of St. Pauls. Membership is open to all who have the time and the inclination to help. Contact Marcia Volk at marcia@volkonline.com.

EMAIL LIST SIGN-UP - Are you new to St. Pauls and want to get more connected, or have you been a longtime friend and missed signing up for our email? Either way, you can go here: spucc.org/connect-learn/signups to fill out our virtual fellowship card to begin receiving our weekly email and special congregational emails, introduce yourself and receive a call from a pastor, and request more information about Children and Youth Programming and more!

FAITH IN ACTION – Some people call it showing up for a protest. Others call it public witness for the values inherent in our faith. Most of us appreciate being able to do both with like-minded congregational members. We are continually building a Faith-in-Action list of people who wish to receive notice of such protests and gatherings – frequently on short notice due to swift governmental action. Please join this email list by contacting Claire Higgins at chiggins@spucc.org.

FAITH AND PUBLIC ISSUES – Help us connect our faith to critical public issues. Do you wish you knew more from a faith perspective about current issues that are important to our public life? Racism, climate change, immigration, to name a few? FPI programs provide opportunities to ask questions, help us understand issues in depth, and discuss possible action. The FPI Task Force plans these programs and we could use your ideas. Contact Toby Rogers at toby@rogers-home.com for information about meetings.

FEED THE HUNGRY – Community Engagement Program (CEP) Suppers at St. Pauls welcome homeless and hungry people to enjoy a meal and get access to health services each week. Volunteers drop off 30 lunches at 1 p.m. on Sundays in the St. Pauls courtyard. Each Sunday's meal can be provided by a single household or split with another volunteer. See the “Announcements” blurb for Sundays to sign up, or get more information by contacting Jennifer Kew at CEPsupper@gmail.com.

GIFTS, PASSIONS, SKILLS – If you have not already completed our GPS Survey, we still need to hear from you. Please go to forms.gle/jK54YezLs8Ea27uW8 to fill it out. This is an important component of our overall member engagement initiative, as mentioned in the November 10, 2019 congregational meeting. If you prefer to complete a paper document, they are available on the front counter of the office next to the labeled return box. Thank you in advance for your participation.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ women and men.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 177 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
