SCRIPTURE

Galatians 5:13-26

It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows. For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. That's an act of true freedom. If you bite and ravage each other, watch out—in no time at all you will be annihilating each other, and where will your precious freedom be then?

My counsel is this: Live freely, animated and motivated by God's Spirit. Then you won't feed the compulsions of selfishness. For there is a root of sinful self-interest in us that is at odds with a free spirit, just as the free spirit is incompatible with selfishness. These two ways of life are contrary to each other, so that you cannot live at times one way and at times another way according to how you feel on any given day. Why don't you choose to be led by the Spirit and so escape the erratic compulsions of a law-dominated existence?

It is obvious what kind of life develops out of trying to get your own way all the time: repetitive, loveless, cheap sex; a stinking accumulation of mental and emotional garbage; frenzied and joyless grabs for happiness; trinket gods; magic-show religion; paranoid loneliness; cutthroat competition; all-consuming-yet-never-satisfied wants; a brutal temper; an impotence to love or be loved; divided homes and divided lives; small-minded and lopsided pursuits; the vicious habit of depersonalizing everyone into a rival; uncontrolled and uncontrollable addictions; ugly parodies of community. I could go on. This isn't the first time I have warned you, you know. If you use your freedom this way, you will not inherit God's kingdom.

But what happens when we live God's way? He brings gifts into our lives, much the same way that fruit appears in an orchard—things like affection for others, exuberance about life, serenity. We develop a willingness to stick with things, a sense of compassion in the heart, and a conviction that a basic holiness permeates things and people. We find ourselves involved in loyal commitments, not needing to force our way in life, able to marshal and direct our energies wisely. Since this is the kind of life we have chosen, the life of the Spirit, let us make sure that we do not just hold it as an idea in our heads or a sentiment in our hearts, but work out its implications in every detail of our lives. That means we will not compare ourselves with each other as if one of us were better and another worse. We have far more interesting things to do with our lives. Each of us is an original.

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

ANTHEM

Lord, Don't Move That Mountain
St. Arbucks Quartet
with Meg Tazelaar

Doris Mae Akers
arr. Brendan Henry

Now Lord don't move my mountain
But give me the strength to climb
And Lord, don't take away my stumbling blocks
But lead me all around.

Lord I don't bother nobody
I try to treat everybody the same
But every time, I turn my back
They scandalize my name.

But oh Jesus
You don't have to move my mountain ...

Now when my folks would slay me
These things they will try to do
But Lord, don't touch 'em
But within their heart
Make 'em give their life to you.

Oh Master
You don't have to move my mountain ...

TODAY'S MUSIC

Charles Callahan (b. 1951) wrote his Improvisation on Materna; A Patriotic Prelude (O Beautiful for Spacious Skies) in 1989 as an homage to Charles Ives (1874 - 1954), who penned a wonderful set of variations on America (My Country 'Tis of Thee) in 1891. Callahan is an educator, conductor, organist, published composer, and author of a book about the builder of our Aeolian-Skinner organ.

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God is arguably the greatest Martin Luther hymn, and the theology of the Lutheran Church. The original version is almost dance-like in rhythm. The processional hymn presents a more majestic march.

The text of I Come with Joy was written by Brian Wren (b. 1936), who is a pastor in the Congregational Church in England. He wrote the hymn as a summary of a series of sermons on the meaning of communion. The tune is an old American hymn, Dove of Peace, from the Southern Harmony hymnal, part of the Sacred Harp tradition. It was arranged by Austin Lovelace (1919 - 2010), who was Organist and Choirmaster for a number of years at First United Methodist Church in Evanston.

Lord, Don't Move That Mountain lyrics and music were written by Doris Mae Akers (1923 - 1995), a famous African American gospel composer, arranger, and singer. This is another gospel song that Mahallia Jackson sang and this arrangement is by Brendan Henry.

This Is My Song uses the main melody from Finlandia, the great orchestral work by Jean Sibelius (1865 - 1957) composed in 1899. Finlandia was part of a range of works of that time that were characterized as nationalistic. The general trait was an uplifting of folk melodies. Lloyd Stone (1912 - 1993) wrote the text in 1934 between the two World Wars as an expression of hope for a peaceful future. Originally, Sibelius disapproved of text being added to his melody, but later relented as he understood the longing for peace, which he shared.

From the Top of My Head was composed by Roy Hargrove (1969 - 2018), an American jazz trumpet player, a two-time Grammy winner, who played primarily what is called a "hard bop" style. He led the group RH Factor, which combined jazz, funk, hip-hop, soul, and gospel. The lyrics are by Gerald Levert (1966 - 2006).

Battle Hymn of the Republic hardly needs much introduction. The words were written by abolitionist Julia Ward Howe (1819 - 1910) in 1861 at the outbreak of our Civil War. Its words have inspired generations here and beyond our shores. The tune is attributed to William Steffe (1830 - 1890), but is thought to be an American camp meeting song, John Brown's Body, combined with another song Oh Brothers!

Our Postlude, Walk All Over God's Heaven, is more of a new creation than an arrangement by Mahallia Jackson (1911 - 1972). She took inspiration from the old hymn I Got A Robe, You Got A Robe. Mahallia has a direct connection with St. Pauls. Brendan Henry grew up loving her music and her deep spiritual commitment so much that his daughter is named after her. Mahallia Jackson was born in Mississippi, but her connection to Chicago was long and deep. She also had a long commitment to the civil rights movement and was behind Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as he spoke at the Lincoln Monument. In the tapes of that event, you can hear her shouting at Dr. King, "Tell them about the dream, Martin!" Although she toured the world, she called Chicago her home. Studs Terkel was among her biggest fans and champions. She came home to Chicago during her final illness.

THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO is next up in this year's Long, Classic Novel Reading Group. We'll be reading it over six months, with the first of two discussions on Sept. 20 at 7 p.m. RSVP: Pastor Jeff, jcarlson@spucc.org.

CREATION CORNER - Avoid Harsh Chemicals in Your Home and Wastewater

Try these climate-friendly cleaners!

- All purpose cleaner: ½ cup white vinegar, 1 pint rubbing alcohol, 1 teaspoon dish soap, water to make a gallon. Use with a spray bottle. If you don't have rubbing alcohol, use equal parts water and vinegar and 2 teaspoons of dish soap.
- Vinegar is an excellent alternative to pesticides for unwanted weeds.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

JULY 5-30 - SUMMER CAMP! - 9 a.m.-12 p.m./3 p.m.

We are excited to have you join us for summer camp this year! Along with arts and crafts, games, and water activities, campers enjoy exploring local parks and going on daily adventures! Learn more and sign up here:

JULY 7 - NEW BIBLE STUDY BEGINS: 1 CORINTHIANS - 12-12:45 p.m., Zoom
You've no doubt heard 1 Corinthians 13 "the love chapter" at weddings, but St. Paul's famous words about love were actually written to a local church only about seven years old. They were new Christians struggling to build a community around the good news of Jesus. For Paul, Christian faith can only be lived in community and in this letter he addresses the questions and struggles of a group of early Christians that remain surprisingly similar to our own. 1 Corinthians is a timely book to read as we reenter our in-person life together. Meets weekly on Zoom. RSVP: Pastor Jeff, jcarlson@spucc.org.

JULY 29 - WINDY CITY WINDS SUMMER CELEBRATION - 7 p.m., Buttercup Park
Celebrate Summer with the Windy City Winds! Join us as we celebrate the joy of music and warmer temperatures with our first concert of 2021. We'll be playing a mix of marches, popular music and wind band classics featuring The Entertainer, Gustav Holst's First Suite in E Flat, a Duke Ellington medley and much more! Buttercup Park is located at 4913 N Sheridan Rd. Bring a blanket and a chair—we look forward to seeing you there!

FAITH & PUBLIC ISSUES – Help us connect our faith to critical public issues. Do you wish you knew more from a faith perspective about current issues that are important to our public life? Racism, climate change, immigration, to name a few? FPI programs provide opportunities to ask questions, help us understand issues in depth, and discuss possible action. The FPI Task Force plans these programs and we could use your ideas. Contact Toby Rogers at toby@rogers-home.com for information about meetings.

Thank you in advance for your participation.

GREEN TEAM Help us as a congregation live out what we say in our Statement of Faith: “God calls us to care for creation.” This is the perfect time to plan, as we prepare to reenter and reimagine our common bodily life together. ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 177 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.

WELCOME TO SAINT PAULS UCC!

Welcome to those whose hearts are on fire with faith,
and to those who bring their doubt inside our doors.

Welcome to our first time guests and
our longtime members.

Welcome to single people, tiny children,
grandparents and families of all configurations.

Welcome to those who rejoice and to those who grieve.

Welcome to each and to everyone.

We are an Open and Affirming church.

We welcome all.

We are blessed by your presence and we are glad you are here.
