THOUGHT FOR PREPARATION

What was between us wasn't a fragile thing to be coddled, cooed over. It came out fully formed, ready to run.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Benny VanDerburgh

O God, we confess it:

We would rather make you the wind

Or the teacher, the parent or the spirit

Of love - but never all. We struggle to focus

Our creativity on our createdness. We struggle

To carry your commands of us into a truly new life

Free in your Word, free to do justice. Incarnate

God, God who walks with us and yet made the way,

Forgive us. Have mercy on us. We have not been creaturely,

We have not been just. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Hannah Fitzgerald

Luke 6:27-38

But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

POSTLUDE

O Happy Day
St. Arbucks Quartet

Edwin Hawkins

If you would like someone to pray with you today, Stephen Ministers are present after the Postlude at the right front of the Sanctuary.

Following Worship, all are invited for a Social Hour time of fellowship in the gym. At this time, we will not be serving coffee so everyone remains masked while indoors.

TODAY'S MUSIC

The author of the text for O How Glorious Full of Wonder was Curtiss Beach (1914-1993). He was Harvard educated and came from a long line of ministers. He wrote this text in 1958 while serving a church in Pasadena, CA. The tune, IN BABILONE, is a traditional Dutch melody first published in 1710. It was adapted as a hymn by Julius Röntgen (1855-1932), a Dutch Romantic composer and pianist. Brahms chose him to debut his Piano Concerto No. 1.

This Is the Day uses a folk melody and unattributed words from Fiji. It was first published in 1967 in a hymnal in Australia. It lends itself to be sung in a call and response style.

Beautiful Savior was originally a German hymn, Schönster Herr Jesu, first found and attributed in a 17th century hymnal. The English tune name is CRUSADER'S HYMN. The translation was provided by Joseph Augustus Seiss, (1823-1904), who was a Lutheran pastor in this country in the mid-1800's. Beautiful Savior also became the alma mater of St. Olaf College, and is sung at the close of every concert and important event at St. Olaf and other colleges. The melody is also the subject for today's prelude.

The author of the text for Incarnate God, Immortal Love is the famous English poet Alfred Lord Tennyson (1809-1892). He was raised to Poet Laureate in 1850 by King Edward VII. The tune ROCKINGHAM was composed and harmonized in 1790 by Edward Miller (1735-1807). He was born to a stone paver and became a flutist in G. F. Handel's orchestra. He published a great deal of music and even detailed history of antiques from his birthplace of Doncaster.

The Heavens Are Telling is the well-known chorus from Creation composed in (1798) by Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809). He was easily one of the most important composers of the Classical Period. Creation is a most unusual work. It was written on an English commission and was composed with both English and German texts as co-equal and original. The portion of John Milton's (1608-1674) poem, Paradise Lost (1667), that Haydn set celebrates the glory of the seven days of creation and only mentions the "fall of Adam" briefly. This chorus celebrates the creation story of the fourth day and the radiant heavens.

The text for O Love How Vast, How Flowing Free is a free translation of an anonymous 15th century Latin poem. The tune, DEO GRACIAS, is also known as AGINCOURT. It is an English ballad that also dates from the 15th century.

O Happy Day was composed by Edwin Hawkins (1943-2018). He was an artist of wide ranging talents: gospel musician, singer, pianist, composer, arranger, and choir master. He was born in Oakland, CA and was already playing keyboards at age 7 for his family's gospel group. O Happy Day is his most performed and remembered work.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
